(a) Proportionality (meaning the action must be proportionate to the results to be achieved)

(b) Due consultation and the taking of appropriate advice from Officers.

(c) Respect for human rights

(d) Presumption in favour of openness

(e) Clarity of aims and desired outcomes

(f) Due consideration to be given to alternative options

(g) Reasons for the decisions to be given provided there is no breach of confidentiality

(h) Wednesbury reasonableness, i.e. the decisions must be reasonable, having regard to all relevant matters and in disregard of all non-relevant matters.

All decisions made by the cabinet, an individual Member of the cabinet, a committee of the cabinet or under joint arrangements, are subject to the call-in procedure. All such decisions will be published on the Internet and made available for inspection at the council's offices. Within a period of five working days from the publication of a decision, a request to call-in the decision may be initiated by either:

- three members of the council.

Call-in should only be used in exceptional circumstances, where Members have evidence which suggests that a decision was not taken in accordance with the principles set out in the first paragraph on this form.
